

Pianist Frank Horvat performs in Richmond Hill

Pianist Frank Horvat's newest CD is A Little Dark Music, an original collection of piano music.

He describes it as cross-genre instrumental music inspired by the environment, poverty and the attacks of Sept. 11, 2001.

Portions of the proceeds of the sale of the disc are donated to the World Wildlife Fund.

Mr. Horvat will be performing in Richmond Hill at the Richmond Hill Presbyterian Church, 10066 Yonge St. as part of the Green Keys Tour, Sunday, Jan. 16, at 2 p.m.

It is part of a free cross-Canada tour and eco-showcase to demonstrate eco-sustainable habits.

Mr. Horvat's portfolio consists of chamber, pop, electronic, musical theatre, film and large ensemble works.

His music has also been featured on television networks such as the CBC and Bravo and a variety of radio stations internationally.

For information visit www.Frank-Horvat.com